

What Happened?

Step 1: Choose one of the scenarios as a group and find out what has happened. Try to find the best explanation by using evidence/creativity/logic.

Step 2: Write a short dialogue about your scenario and act it out. (Optional)

Step 3: Vote for the most likely/interesting explanation. (Optional)

The unattended book

"You find a book on a park bench with a note inside saying, 'Please return this to its owner.'"

You look around and see a few kids swinging or sliding in the playground. Then you notice some bagel crumbs on the bench."

Can you explain
"What happened?"

The mysterious phone call

"Your friend receives a phone call, and after talking for a minute, she suddenly leaves the room looking worried without explaining why."

You know that she is always kind and you have never seen her like this before"

Can you explain
"What happened?"

What Happened?

The empty bird cage

"You walk into the living room and see that the birdcage is open, and your pet bird is missing, but the window is closed. You know that parents are at work and your little brother is at school"

Can you explain

"What happened?"

The gift

"You find a beautifully wrapped gift on your doorstep with a note that simply says, 'For You,' but there's no name or sender. It is not a special day either You ask your parents but they seem to know nothing"

Can you explain

"What happened?"

